The Members of the Corporation are Avista Corporation; Bonneville Power Administration ("Bonneville"); Public Utility District No. 1 of Chelan County ("Chelan County PUD"), Washington; Public Utility District No. 2 of Grant County, Washington; Puget Sound Energy, Inc.; and the City of Seattle, a municipal corporation of the State of Washington, acting by and through its City Light Department ("Seattle City Light"); provided that Chelan County PUD's membership shall only become effective if and at such time as it is affirmed by Chelan County PUD's Board of Commissioners in a written resolution by May 31, 2006.

5.2 Admission of New Members. New Members may be added by amendment of the Bylaws. The Members may consider adding new Members at any time. At a minimum, the Members shall consider the addition of new Members within one year after adoption of the Bylaws and at approximately yearly intervals thereafter.

5.3 Withdrawal from Membership. Any Member may withdraw from the Corporation by providing written notice of its withdrawal to the Secretary of the Corporation; provided that withdrawal of membership shall not, in and of itself, affect any outstanding contractual obligations previously assumed by such Member.

5.4 Establishment of Record Date for Member Votes. In order to determine which Members are entitled to vote, the Board of Directors shall set a record date, which shall be the date of notice to the Members of any meeting at which any matter is to be presented to the Members for a vote. Members specified on the list of Members maintained by the Secretary of the Corporation on the record date are entitled to notice of such meeting and to vote at any such meeting if they continue to be Members as of the date of the meeting and their designated representative or alternate is present.

5.5 Representatives. The Members shall act under the Bylaws through their designated representatives and alternates. Each Member shall provide the Secretary, in writing, with the name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of a designated representative and his or her alternate. Each Member may by notice to the Secretary revise its information.

5.6 Meetings of Members.

5.6.1 Biannual Member Meeting. There shall be biannual meetings of the Members at approximately six-month intervals at such date, time, and place as the Board of Directors shall determine, generally rotating among Seattle, Washington, Portland, Oregon, and other locations in the Northwest. The Secretary of the Corporation shall endeavor to schedule such meetings at a time when all of the Members are available. Each biannual meeting shall be open to the public. At one such biannual meeting each year, the members of the Board of Directors and Officers of the Corporation shall:

- i. Deliver to the Members (to the extent not delivered previously) the annual financial statements of the Corporation prepared in accordance with the requirements of Section 10.2 and copies of the Corporation's funding requests and related forecasts prepared in accordance with Section 7.1;

The Secretary of the Corporation shall endeavor to schedule such meeting at a time when all of the Members are available. Any such special meeting shall be held at the corporate offices or other location as determined by the Members. Special meetings shall be open to the public.

5.6.3 Permitted Means of Member Meeting Participation. Members may participate in a meeting through the use of conference telephone, electronic video screen communication, or similar communications equipment, so long as all Members participating in such meeting can hear one another at the same time and arrangements are made to afford the public an opportunity to attend and observe any biannual or special meeting pursuant to Section 5.6.1 or 5.6.2 (with the exception of closed sessions held pursuant to Section 5.6.4.). Participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 5.6.3 shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

5.6.4 Closed Sessions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Members may, with notice to the Secretary of the Corporation in each instance, hold any biannual or special meeting (or portion thereof) held pursuant to Section 5.6.1 or 5.6.2 in closed session for the discussion of a Funding Agreement, Funding Agreement development issues, litigation or potential litigation, personnel matters, commercially sensitive information, and other matters that are reasonably and in good faith determined by the Members to be entitled to confidential treatment. Only Members and certain Officers, employees, and agents of the Corporation, as designated by the Members, may be present during any closed session; provided, however, to the extent deemed necessary by the Members, any other person or persons having business before the Members that relates specifically to the matter or matters to be discussed during any portion of a closed session may be present during such portion of a closed session.

5.6.5 What Constitutes a Meeting of the Members. A meeting of the Members is a biannual or special meeting pursuant to Section 5.6.1 or 5.6.2. Nothing in the Bylaws shall restrict the ability of the Members or their representatives to meet at any time and any place privately to discuss matters pertaining to the Corporation's activities or purposes; provided that voting of Members pursuant to the Bylaws shall take place in a publicly-noticed biannual or special meeting held pursuant to Section 5.6.1 or 5.6.2.

5.7 Notice.

5.7.1 Notice of Meetings of Members.

5.7.1.1 Notice to Members. The Secretary of the Corporation shall provide notice of biannual and special meetings to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten days and not more than fifty days prior to the meeting; or not less than thirty days and not more than fifty days prior to the meeting in the case of any meeting in which the Members are to vote on any proposed amendment to the Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation or to vote pursuant to Section 12.4. Each such notice shall state the date, time, and place of the meeting and the meeting agenda, including the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, and shall include any meeting materials as are then available. The Secretary shall make reasonable efforts to provide the Members with additional meeting materials, if any, as they become available before the meeting. Notice of meetings to Members shall be made personally, by first-class mail, return-receipt requested, or by electronic transmission to those Members who have so requested and have provided the Secretary with the address, location, or system to which such notices should be electronically transmitted. Notice to Members will be deemed provided upon proper posting with the US Postal Service to the Member's address of record with the Corporation or upon electronic transmission, as appropriate; provided that if notice of meetings is provided by electronic transmission, it must satisfy the requirements of RCW 24.03.009 as may be amended from time to time.

5.7.1.2 Notice to Interested Persons. At the same time that the Corporation provides notice to the Members, it shall provide the same notice as set forth in Section 5.7.1.1 to Interested Persons as provided in Section 4.2; provided that such notice shall not include any confidential meeting materials.

5.7.1.3 Posting of Notice. Prior to each biannual and special meeting of the Members, the Corporation shall make reasonable efforts to post to the Website the notice set forth in Section 5.7.1.1. The Corporation shall make reasonable efforts to post to the Website any changes to the contents of such notice as soon as practicable in advance of the meeting.

5.7.2 Effect of Agenda Changes. At the biannual and special meetings of the Members pursuant to Section 5.6.1 or 5.6.2, the failure of any item to be included in the notice provided pursuant to Section 5.7.1 shall not prevent action from being taken at the meetings; provided, however, if any changes are made to such notice before the meeting, the Secretary of the Corporation shall make reasonable efforts to provide the Members and Interested Persons with such changes as soon as practicable in advance of the meeting and post such changes to the Website at the same time.

5.7.3 Member Waivers of Notice. The notice requirements contained in the Bylaws may be waived in writing by any Member with respect to itself, either before or after the meeting. The attendance by any Member at a meeting without protesting, as soon as reasonably practicable, the lack of notice of such meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice by such Member. All waivers shall be made part of the minutes of the meetings.

5.7.4 Effect of Lack of Notice. At the biannual and special meetings of the Members pursuant to Sections 5.6.1 and 5.6.2, the first agenda item of each such meeting shall be the Secretary's report on the provision of notice to the Members and Interested Persons regarding the meeting being held (which notice includes pursuant to Section 5.7.1 the distribution or posting of meeting materials). If a Member does not attend a meeting, the Corporation must document that it provided notice or that Member has waived notice of such meeting before action may be taken. The Members shall consider any insufficiencies in notice or provision of materials to Interested Persons in determining whether to proceed with action in any item at the meeting; provided that the Members may in their sole discretion determine to take action on any item notwithstanding any insufficiency.

5.8 Quorum Rules. The quorum for biannual or special Member meetings with respect to any action shall be the Members in attendance with the aggregated voting weight required to take such action.

5.9 Voting of Members. Except where a greater vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, applicable law, or the Bylaws, the affirmative vote of a Simple Majority vote of the Members shall be the act or determination of the Members under these Bylaws. Members may vote by designated representative or an alternate but may not vote by proxy.

5.10 Voting Shares.

5.10.1 Members' Voting Shares. The Members' voting shares shall be as follows:

Member	Normal Cap Vote	Reduced Cap Vote
Avista Corporation	11.30%	14.98%
Bonneville	49.70%	33.30%
Chelan County PUD	6.32%	8.38%
Public Utility District No. 2 of Grant County, Washington	6.98%	9.26%
Puget Sound Energy, Inc.	15.89%	21.07%
Seattle City Light	9.81%	13.01%

5.10.2 Voting Shares Upon Withdrawal or Addition of a Member. Upon the withdrawal of a Member or the addition of a new Member, the voting share of each Member shall be recalculated and established based upon the following formula:

Member's Voting Share = (.30 * [1/total number of Members]) + (.40 * [dollar value of net transmission plant of such Member/total dollar value of net transmission plant of all Members]) + (.30 * [annual average control area load in aMW of such Member/total annual average control area load in aMW of all Members]),

Where,

“Net transmission plant” of a Member means such Member’s net transmission plant as reflected in such Member’s then most recent FERC Form 1 or equivalent report; and

“Annual average control area load” of a Member means such Member’s then most recent twelve-month load within its control area as reported to the Northwest Power Pool;

Provided, if such formula would result in Bonneville having a voting share in excess of 49.9%, Bonneville’s voting share shall be reduced to 49.9% for any Normal Cap Vote and, in the event Bonneville’s voting share is so reduced, the amount of such reduction shall, for such vote, be reallocated to the other Members based upon their proportionate share of the aggregated non-Bonneville voting share; and

Provided, further if such formula would result in Bonneville having a voting share in excess of 33.3%, Bonneville’s voting share shall be reduced to 33.3% for any Reduced Cap Vote and, in the event Bonneville’s voting share is so reduced, the amount of such reduction shall, for such vote, be reallocated to the other Members based upon their proportionate share of the aggregated non-Bonneville voting share.

The Secretary shall notify the Members of the recalculated voting shares and post such information on the Website.

5.11 Restrictions on Transfer. No Member may transfer or assign its membership in the Corporation, or any right or interest therein, to any other Person, whether voluntarily or by operation of law, and any such attempted transfer or assignment shall be null and void and without any force or effect whatsoever; provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing, a Member may, upon notice to the Secretary and each of the other Members, transfer or assign its membership in the Corporation, and all (but not less than all) of its rights and interests therein, to any Person (other than another Member or the Affiliate of another Member) that acquires all or substantially all of the assets or stock of, or all or substantially all of the partnership, limited liability company membership, or other ownership interests in, the Member.

5.12 Effect of Membership. A Member of the Corporation acquires no proprietary or operational interest whatsoever in facilities used in interstate transmission or wholesale sales of electric energy in interstate commerce solely as a consequence of membership in the Corporation. Any state or federal agency not otherwise having jurisdiction by law over a Member shall not be construed to have jurisdiction over a Member by reason of its membership in the Corporation. The interpretation and enforcement of the Bylaws, including Member rights, shall be resolved exclusively according to Washington law.

ARTICLE VI.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

6.1 Board of Directors' Authorities. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws. All powers and activities of the Corporation shall be exercised and managed by the Board of Directors or, if delegated, under the ultimate direction of the Board of Directors; provided that the Board of Directors shall only undertake activities or provide services pursuant to a Functional Agreement approved by the Members consistent with Section 3.3; provided, further, that the foregoing proviso shall not limit the Board of Directors' authority to undertake activities and enter into contracts for administrative purposes associated with the operation of the Corporation, as distinct from the Functional Agreements it will enter into with its Members and Non-Member Qualified Parties nor shall the foregoing proviso limit the Board of Directors' authority to carry out the Corporation's duties as set out in Article IV.

6.2 Number and Qualifications.

6.2.1 Number. After adoption of the Bylaws and resignation of the initial director designated in the Section 2 of Article V. of the Articles of Incorporation, there shall be a three-member Board of Directors.

6.2.2 Qualifications. Such disclosures shall also include any such financial interests or other potential conflicts of interest known by the candidates with respect to other family relations of the candidates. The disclosures of qualified candidates shall be made available on a confidential basis to the Members prior to the election.

iv. In screening potential candidates, the Board shall exclude any candidate it determines is likely to have a conflict of interest with the duties of a Director and shall exclude any candidate the Board of Directors determines fails to meet the criteria for becoming a Director set forth in Section 6.2.3.

v. The slate of nominees shall consist of those candidates identified pursuant to items i. and ii. above and not excluded pursuant to item iv. above.

The Members may remove any Director at any time, for cause, by a Simple Majority vote of the Members.

6.4 Meetings of the Board of Directors.

6.4.1 What Constitutes a Meeting of the Board of Directors. A meeting is a gathering (in person or otherwise as permitted in this Article VI.) of at least a quorum of Directors as set forth in Section 6.6; provided, however, the presence of a number of Directors constituting a quorum in one place or at one event does not constitute a meeting if there is no deliberation or action taken regarding the Corporation's business. A quorum of Directors may not take action (except by written consent as provided in Section 6.8) or deliberate regarding the Corporation's business except at a meeting and in compliance with procedural rules in this Article VI.

6.4.2 Permitted Means of Director Meeting Participation. Directors may participate in a meeting through the use of conference telephone, electronic video screen communication, or similar communications equipment, so long as all Directors participating in such meeting can hear one another at the same time and arrangements are made to afford the public an opportunity to attend and observe any such meeting (with the exception of closed sessions held pursuant to Section 6.4.5). Participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 6.4.2 shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

6.4.3 Meetings of Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall meet at least four times each fiscal year at the corporate offices or other location in the Northwest determined by the Board; provided, however, that the Board of Directors shall have its first meeting within 30 days following the election of a new Director. The Secretary of the Corporation shall endeavor to schedule such meetings at a time when all of the Directors are available. At the first meeting in the first quarter of each fiscal year, the Board of Directors shall elect a chairperson to preside over meetings of the Board of Directors. The regularly-scheduled meetings of the Board of Directors shall be established for each fiscal year in advance of such year. In addition to the regular meetings of the Board of Directors, additional meetings may be held at such times as may from time to time be fixed by the chairperson of the Board of Directors. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the President of the Corporation or by any Director.

6.4.4 Open Board of Directors Meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors held pursuant to this Article VI. shall generally be open to any and all Members and any and all members of the public, except as provided in Section 6.4.5 below. The Board shall set aside time during each meeting to note and, as the Board finds appropriate, discuss agenda items submitted by any Member or Interested Person. Subject to such procedural restrictions as the Board of Directors may reasonably impose, Members, Qualified Non-Member Parties, Interested Persons, and other stakeholders shall have the opportunity to provide comments to the Board of Directors at all regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors.

6.4.5 Closed Sessions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Directors may, at any time during any open meeting of the Board of Directors, upon approval by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the Directors present at such meeting, hold a closed session for discussion of litigation or potential litigation, personnel matters, Director candidate selection and screening, vendor or contractor selection, real estate transactions, commercially sensitive information, and other matters that are reasonably and in good faith determined by the Board of Directors to be entitled to confidential treatment. Only Directors and certain Officers, employees, and agents of the Corporation, as designated by the Board, may be present during any closed session; provided, however, to the extent deemed necessary by the chairperson of the Board of Directors, any other person or persons having business before the Board of Directors that relates specifically to the matter or matters to be discussed during any portion of a closed session may be present during such portion of a closed session.

6.5 Notice.

6.5.1 Notice of Meetings of Board of Directors.

6.5.1.1 Notice to Directors and Members. Prior to each Board of Directors meeting, the Secretary of the Corporation shall provide notice of such meeting to each Director and Member. Each such notice shall state the date, time, and place of the meeting and the meeting agenda, including the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, and shall include such meeting materials as are then available; provided that only the Directors shall be provided with confidential meeting materials. The Secretary shall make reasonable efforts to provide the Directors and Members with additional meeting materials, if any, as they become available before the meeting; provided that only the Directors shall be provided with confidential meeting materials. Notice of meetings shall be made personally, by first-class mail, return-receipt requested, or by electronic transmission to those Directors and Members who have so requested and have provided the Secretary with the address, location, or system to which notices should be electronically transmitted. Notice to Directors and Members will be deemed provided upon proper posting with the US Postal Service to the Member's address of record with the Corporation or upon electric transmission, as appropriate; provided that if notice of meetings is provided by electronic transmission, it must satisfy the requirements of RCW 24.03.009, as may be amended from time to time.

6.5.1.2 Notice to Interested Persons. At the same time that it provides notice as set forth in Section 6.5.1.1 to the Directors and the Members, the Corporation shall also provide the same notice to Interested Persons as provided in Section 4.2; provided that such notice shall not include any confidential meeting materials.

6.5.1.3 Posting of Notice. Prior to each Board of Directors meeting, the Corporation shall make reasonable efforts to post to the Website the notice set forth in Section 6.5.1.1. The Corporation shall make reasonable efforts to post to the Website any changes to the contents of such notice as soon as practicable in advance of the meeting.

6.5.1.4 Effect of Agenda Changes. At the meetings of the Board of Directors, the Corporation's failure to include any item in a notice as set forth in Section 6.5.1.1 shall not prevent action from being taken at such meetings; provided, however, if any changes are made to the contents of such notice before the meeting, the Secretary of the Corporation shall make reasonable efforts to provide the Directors, Members, and Interested Persons with any such changes as soon as practicable in advance of the meeting and post such changes to the Website at the same time.

6.5.1.5 Effect of Lack of Notice. At the meetings of the Board of Directors pursuant to Section 6.4.3, the first agenda item of each such meeting shall be the Secretary's report on the provision of notice to the Directors, Members, and Interested Persons regarding the meeting being held (which notice includes pursuant to Section 6.5.1 the distribution or posting of meeting materials) and the distribution or posting of any meeting materials. If a Director does not attend a meeting, the Corporation must document that it provided notice or that Director waived notice of such meeting before action may be taken. The Board of Directors shall consider any insufficiencies in notice or provision of materials to Members and Interested Persons in determining whether to proceed with action on any item at the meeting; provided that the Board has sole discretion to take action on any item notwithstanding any insufficiency.

6.5.2 Waiver of Notice. The notice requirements contained in the Bylaws may be waived in writing at any time by any Director or Member with respect to such Director or Member. The attendance by any Director or Member at a meeting without protesting, as soon as reasonably practicable, the lack of notice of such meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice by such Director or Member. All waivers shall be made part of the minutes of the meetings.

6.6 Quorum of Directors. A quorum for any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be a majority of the Directors then in office. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by the required number of Directors, as specified in the Bylaws. A majority of the Directors then present, whether or not constituting a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place, subject to the Corporation providing notice of such rescheduled meeting pursuant to Section 6.5.

6.7 Voting of Directors. Except where a greater vote is required by the Articles of Incorporation, applicable law, or the Bylaws, the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office shall be the act of the Board of Directors. Each Director shall have one vote. Directors may not vote by proxy.

6.8 Action by Consent in Writing. The Board of Directors may (i) for personnel and ministerial decisions or (ii) when there is not sufficient time to wait to take action until a regularly-noticed meeting, subject to any applicable law, take any action without a meeting, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all of the Directors then in office. If the Board was not able to solicit public comment prior to the action taken regarding decisions identified in (ii) above, the Board shall report on its decision at the next regularly-scheduled Board meeting and provide an opportunity for public comment.

6.9 Meeting Minutes. The Secretary of the Corporation shall make public the minutes of each meeting of the Board of Directors (with the exception of closed sessions held pursuant to Section 6.4.5), and each written consent of the Board of Directors, by posting the same on the Website and making the same available at the offices of the Corporation, or by any other reasonable means, within five business days after the minutes have been formally adopted or the consent signed; provided that unofficial draft minutes shall be posted no later than 15 days after the date on which the meeting was held in the event that formal minutes have not been adopted by that time.

The Corporation shall not make any loan of money or property to, or guarantee the obligation of, any Director or Related Person of a Director; provided, however, the Corporation may advance money to a Director for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in performance of the duties of such Director so long as such individual would be entitled to reimbursement for such expenses absent such advance.

6.11 Inspection Rights. Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records, and documents, and to inspect the physical properties, of the Corporation. No Director shall use or disseminate any information (other than any information regarding a violation of tariffs or laws) obtained as a result of any such inspection, or otherwise in his or her capacity as a Director, for his or her own personal gain or to the detriment of the Corporation.

6.12 Compensation of Directors.

6.12.1 Base Compensation and Additional Compensation. Directors shall receive base compensation in the amount of $50,000 (U.S.) per year and additional compensation in the amount of $1,000 (U.S.) per day for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors, and $500 (U.S.) per day for any other meetings related to the business of the Corporation that the Board of Directors determines a Director should attend, to obtain the widest possible input into the decisions of the Board of Directors and to avoid hardship on the part of such Directors; provided, however, that the total compensation for each Director shall not exceed $100,000 (U.S.) in any calendar year.

6.12.2 Adjustment of Compensation. The dollar amounts specified in Section 6.12.1, shall be adjusted by the Board of Directors prospectively for inflation biennially not counting the year the Bylaws become effective based upon the Consumer Price Index for Portland, Oregon. The Corporation may advance expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by such persons who are parties to a Proceeding in advance of final disposition of the Proceeding.

11.2 Indemnification of Employees and Agents. The Corporation may indemnify and advance expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) to any of its non-Officer employees and agents against expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any Proceeding arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was a employee or agent of the Corporation; provided that such indemnity shall not extend to a non-Officer employee or agent of the Corporation to the extent such non-Officer employee or agent is or was not acting in good faith or is or was acting outside the scope of the duties of such non-Officer employee or agent.

11.3 Notice of Request for Indemnification. Any Director, Officer, non-Officer employee or agent seeking indemnification shall do so in writing to the Secretary as soon as the non-Officer employee or agent becomes aware of a claim arising from their actions on behalf of the Corporation.

11.4 Settlement. The Corporation is not liable to indemnify an Indemnitee for any amounts paid in settlement of any Proceeding without the Corporation's written consent. The Corporation shall not settle any Proceeding in any manner that would impose any penalty or limitation on an Indemnitee without the Indemnitee's written consent. Neither the Corporation nor Indemnitee may unreasonably withhold its consent to a proposed settlement.

11.5 Contract and Related Rights.

11.5.1 Contract Rights. The right of an Indemnitee to indemnification and advancement of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) is a contract right upon which Indemnitee shall be presumed to have relied in determining to serve or to continue to serve in his or her capacity with the Corporation. Such right shall continue as long as Indemnitee shall be subject to any possible Proceeding. Any amendment to or repeal of this Article XI. shall not adversely affect any right or protection of an Indemnitee with respect to any acts or omissions of such Indemnitee occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

11.5.2 Optional Insurance, Contracts, and Funding. The Corporation may:

- i. Maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any Indemnitee against any liability, whether or not the Corporation would have power to indemnify the individual against the same liability under RCW 23B.08.510 or .520, as it may be amended from time to time or superseded;
- ii. Enter into contracts with any Indemnitee in furtherance of this Article XI. and consistent with applicable law; and
- iii. Create a trust fund, grant a security interest, or use other means (including, without limitation, a letter of credit) to ensure the payment of such amounts as may be necessary to effect indemnification as provided in this Article XI.

11.5.3 Severability. If any provision or application of this Article XI. shall be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Article XI. and its remaining applications shall not be affected thereby, and shall continue in full force and effect.

11.6 Exceptions to Corporation's Obligations. Any other provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Corporation shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of the Bylaws to indemnify or advance expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) to Indemnitee with respect to any Proceeding involving claims:

i. Initiated or brought voluntarily by Indemnitee and not by way of defense, except with respect to Proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification, but such indemnification or advancement of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) may be provided by the Corporation in specific cases if the Board of Directors finds it to be appropriate;

ii. Instituted by Indemnitee to enforce or interpret this Article XI, if a court of competent jurisdiction determines that each of the material assertions made by Indemnitee in such Proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous;

iii. For which any of the expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) or liabilities for which indemnification is being sought have been paid directly to Indemnitee by an insurance carrier under a policy of Officers' and Directors' liability insurance maintained by the Corporation; or

iv. With respect to which the Corporation is prohibited by applicable law as then in effect from paying such indemnification or advancement of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees). For example, federal legislation may prohibit indemnification for certain ERISA violations.
